

Visit and lecture of a Moscow scientist

On February 14, 2020, the management department team organized a meeting with the candidate of agricultural sciences Maria Valerievna Konyushkova, senior researcher at the Eurasian Center for Food Security at Moscow State University named Lomonosov, who made a presentation on the topic "Sustainable soil management and digital agriculture".

The lecture attended by faculty, students of the Faculty of Organization and Management of Water Resources and the Faculty of Land Management.

Press Service of the Institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov