

Visit to the memorial complex

On August 31, 2002, on the Day of Remembrance of the Victims of Repression, "ShaKhidlar khotirasi" memorial complex was opened in Tashkent, dedicated to compatriots who bravely fought for the freedom of the Motherland and who were subjected to massive repressions in the first half of the 20th century. The museum is located in one of the most picturesque districts of the city - right opposite the Tashkent TV tower, on the banks of the Bozsu canal.

On April 13, 2021, students of group 414 of the Faculty of Land Management, together with the curator of the group, Z. Khafizova, visited the memorial complex "Shakhidlar hotirasi". Students got acquainted with the exhibits of the museum reflecting our achievements from ancient times.
