

The strength of the family is the strength of society

The family is the basic unit of our society, a sacred place that preserves the beautiful traditions and values of our people. Virtue begins in the family, then moves to the neighborhood, enters the community. This is exactly the truth. In order to further improve the social, spiritual and educational environment in the community in cooperation with the Center for Spirituality and Enlightenment, the Department of Justice, the Women's Committee, the Council of the Youth Union- events were held on topics: "Responsibility", "High legal consciousness and culture", "Books and reading is a mirror of human spirituality", "The role and responsibility of parents in the upbringing of children", "Creating a personal library in the family". It is also important that such good deeds are now can be done online. ❌ On May 15 this year, the Family Center of the Ministry of Mahalla and Family Support of the Republic of Uzbekistan organized a workshop on "Study of priorities for socio-economic development of the family in Uzbekistan."
