

Stipendium Hungaricum program for students

Under the guidance of professor B.S. Mirzaev, the first vice-rector of TIAME was held a presentation of Stipendium Hungaricum program for students. Stipendium Hungaricum is a Hungarian government scholarship program aimed at student and cultural exchange between Hungary and other countries of the world.

The event was attended by gifted 1st year students with an IELTS certificate, as well as 2nd year students via Zoom platform. First Vice-Rector B.S Mirzaev noted that for several years a number of international projects have been implemented in cooperation with Hungarian universities, and work is underway to create a “Double Degree” program with partner universities in Hungary as well.

After that, Ilkhom Abdurakhmanov, doctoral student of the Department of Land Management spoke about Stipendium Hungaricum program, its goals and objectives, directions and types of funding, the procedure for submitting applications for participation in the program. The program is designed to fund full-time and part-time undergraduate, graduate and doctoral programs at Hungarian universities and applications will be accepted until January 16, 2021.
