

Navruz is an ancient holiday

Navruz is the oldest spring festival. The holiday of Navruz is widely celebrated in our country. This is a celebration of creativity, solidarity and livelihood. There is very little time left before the celebration of Navruz. Navruz is celebrated throughout the country. Preparations for this holiday take place in the magnificent Ice Palace in Humo Arena, . Today, 50 students of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers together with the Deputy Dean for Youth Affairs of the Faculty of Land Management H. Eshova and the Chairperson of the Institute's Women's Council Z. Hafizova took an active part in this event. On the first day of the rehearsal, our students did an excellent job. Congratulations to all with the upcoming Navruz!
