

Education and Integration Development

To accomplish the tasks set by the rector of our institute at the general meeting of the institute on February 2, 2020, on 12th of March , in order to develop the integration of education, science and production, to study modern methods and technologies, the teaching staff of the Department of Geodesy and Geoinformatics together with undergraduates of the specialty "5A313401 -Geodesy and geoinformatics "visited the State Research and Production Enterprise "Cartography ". There, undergraduates received the necessary information about the latest technologies and innovations in the industry in recent years. They also visited the enterprise museum.

 Press Service of TIAME