

Presidential elections and youth activism

Elections are one of the most important political processes in the political and social life of the country. Local meetings and campaigns encourage citizens to be active in voting for a worthy candidate.

One of such advocacy events was held at the SD No.1. The dean of the LM faculty Sh.Narbaev, Deputy Dean H.Eshova, educator Sh. Islamova and Mirzo Ulugbek mahalla prevention inspectors Saydakhmedov Sarvarkhodja Sunnatovich, Vokhobov Otakhon Ilyas ugli, chairman of the mahalla Yusupov Ravshan Abilovich carried out propaganda work.

A roundtable discussion was also held to increase students' legal knowledge and prevent them from committing offenses and crimes. The event focused on the manifestations of delinquency among young people today, raising awareness and raising the spiritual world of students, instilling in them a sense of respect for high traditions, freedom of religion, interethnic harmony and interreligious tolerance. The event was another opportunity for young people to get a lot of valuable information on the prevention of various harmful diseases.
