

A fair for students

Today, the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers organized a fair in the area of student dormitory. More than fifteen types of food products are sold to students at low prices to full the students' table at the SD.

 Fruits, vegetables, melons, eggs and other products are brought to the fair and sold at reasonable prices for students, - said the chairman of the Student Housing Council Jahongir Saidakhmedov Bakhibekovich. Thereafter, more than 15 different products are scheduled to be delivered to students at a discount every Saturday and Sunday of the week. The main purpose of the fair is to ease the life for students.
