

A joint approach to the problem of women

October 15, 2021 at the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers jointly with Mirzo-Ulugbek district police department, Institute of Mahalla and Family Support under the Ministry of Mahalla and Family Support of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the "Mustaqillik" MFY in Mirzo-Ulugbek district online and offline webinar on topic "Improving mechanisms of comprehensive assistance and support for women who have been victims of oppression and violence, have committed suicide or are prone to suicide".

Professors and students of the institute were invited to the webinar. Zuhra Qarabaevna Ismailova, Chair of the Advisory Board on Women's Issues of the Institute opened the event. One of the most serious consequences of domestic violence is the serious damage to the mental and moral condition of children. In this regard, a number of resolutions and decrees of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan have been adopted, on the basis of which the family is the highest value. Children are brought up in the spirit of respect for adults and loyalty to traditions.

Rasulova Muqaddam, director of the Republican Center for Rehabilitation and Adaptation of Women delivered a speech on topic: "Organizing special services for women who are victims of oppression and violence and providing them with targeted socio-psychological assistance", Ismayilova Rano Nuraevna, Candidate of Psychological Sciences, Head of the Department of Family Values and Family Psychology, "Suicide Related to Domestic Violence", Captain Molashkhiya Tamara Yurevna, Senior Inspector for Women and Family Affairs of Mirzo Ulugbek District, "Protection of Women Victims of Domestic Violence", Akhmedova Albina Abdulkhaevna, senior lieutenant of the Interior Ministry No. 7 of Mirzo Ulugbek district, "Current measures to ensure the health and safety of women (drug addiction, mental illness)", Mukhamedjanova Durdon Shoshiy qizi, Deputy Chairman of the "Mustaqillik" mahalla MFY, made a report on "The main criteria of the principle of "Obod mahalla" and the activities of citizens' self-government bodies." The topic of the lectures aroused great interest among the participants. There were questions and answers and presentations on strengthening interagency cooperation in the prevention of domestic violence.
