

"Land management" faculty professor and teachers in propagation events

On November 14, 2020 heads of departments and professors of the faculty of "Land Management" of Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers held a Spiritual propaganda event "New Uzbekistan - a new worldview", with the purpose of informing the general society about the content, essence and significance of the ongoing reforms in our country. Associate professor A.R Babajanov, the head of the department "Land use", PhD A.S. Altiev, professor of this department, Sh.K. Narbaev, Dean of the Faculty of "Land Management" had a meeting in No.

53 secondary school of Chirchik district with the people who live in "Jaloir" MFY. Associate Professor A.Babajanov delivered a lecture on benefits given to young people in the country, youth policy, reforms in the field of harmonious and intellectual generation. People received answers to their questions. On November 14, 2020 at 10.00 in the school No 16 of Orta Chirchik district was held a meeting with the people of "Rovatak" MFY with the participation of the head of the department "Higher Mathematics" and professors and teachers of this department. At the meeting, F. Turaev spoke about the ongoing reforms in the country, the priorities in the development of the education system, especially in recent years, teaching and educating the younger generation in preschool and secondary schools, preparing them for the future of "New Uzbekistan".

On November 14, 2020 at 14.00 in the school No 53 of Orta Chirchik district was held a meeting with the people of "Khoja Uchkun" MFY with the participation of the head of the department "State Cadastres", Associate Professor K. Rakhmonov, professors and teachers of this department. The meeting was attended by the chairmen of the mahallas, about three hundred local residents and school communities, who made a worthy contribution to the organization of the event at a high level.

Press service of TIAME