

The importance of good deed

A person gets care and attention by giving others care and attention. The prerequisite for humanity is to share the love of life with people. A series of events by the activists of the Youth union dedicated to the Day of Defenders were held on January 14. Students visit the Museum of the Armed Forces, Veterans and poor people, and realized Youth Volunteering Community during the week.

R.Jumaniyozov, the press-secretary of the institute