

My life in the dormitory

June 15, 2021 the Institute psychologist M. Mukhamedova held an event with students in the student dormitory № 3 on "Dormitory - my second home. The event was attended by girls of the faculties of organization and management of water management and mechanization of agriculture. The event was aimed at studying the living conditions in the dormitory and social relations among female students. A social survey was conducted.

The press-service of TIAME