

Work achievements

for significant contribution to the development of intellectual and spiritual potential of the younger generation of our country, love for the motherland, devotion to the ideas of independence, many years of fruitful work in the educational system, as well as active participation in the public life of the Institute, teachers of the Land Resources Management faculty A. Babajonov and A. Mukimov were awarded the title of academician and professor of the Turonian Academy of Sciences.

The press-service of TIAAME