

Meeting with Soat Sharipov

It is clear that each artist is praised by his work and behavior. This idea is not unique to all artists. Only those artists who are distinguished by their characteristic aspiration and talent can enjoy this quality. Soat Sharipov, who has attracted the attention of the audience for many years with his artistic ability, has a great deal of fans.

Today the next talk was held on the title 'Exemplary artists' at our institute. The current guest of the event was famous actor and TV presenter Soat Sharipov. The audience asked questions related to the work of Soat Sharipov on film and television. He explained why he was called 'Soat': "As my parents say I used to cry at 6 am every morning. Neighbors knew that it was 6 o'clock am because of my crying. They said that I was a symbolic "alarm clock" for them", said Soat Sharipov. The event was warmly welcomed by the students. At the end of the event the guest was presented the Certificate of honor and memorable gifts of the Institute and Academy of Fine Arts.

Report by B.Muqimov, a teacher of the Department of Humanitarian Subjects

R.Jumaniyozov, the press secretary of the institute