

Perfomance of five initiatives

On May 17, 2019, the Institute hosted a roundtable on the theme "Family is the main unit of society" on five initiatives aimed at raising the spirituality of the youth and meaningful organization of their leisure. The event was attended by the First Deputy Chairwoman of the Women's Committee Z. Makhkamova, Deputy Mayor of Tashkent, The senior inspector of the Registry Office of M.Ulugbek district G.Yuldaeva and the female professors and teachers of the Institute.

At the event, special attention was paid to the reforms being carried out in our country on the systematic organization of student employment, the conditions created for women and the opportunities for women. The study of such subjects as law, history, sociology, psychology, pedagogy, demography, ethics in the family and its role in society has been shaping the society for thousands of years and is an important link in the education and upbringing of the younger generation. that the family is a sacred place for the society to perfect a healthy and comprehensively advanced generation, and that the first human life is formed in the family. It was emphasized that the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan stipulates that the formation of a healthy family environment, and thus upbringing a healthy generation, is a priority of the state policy.
