

The new book representates the new Uzbekistan

Yesterday was a held a presentation of the book "Yangi O'zbekistonning iste'dodli yoshlari"(Talented Youth of New Uzbekistan) in the big, magnificent hall of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers. First-year-students had an opportunity to have a detailed information about the ideas put forward in this book. They felt that they are, in fact, "the main drivers of the Third Renaissance," as written in the book. Speakers of the event were Zuhridin Haydarovich, Head of the Spirituality Department, Ruzimurat Choriyev, Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs and Spiritual Enlightenment, Davron Rasulev, Press Secretary of the Institute and Chairman of the Youth Council.

"Value the education, strive for knowledge! Don't waste a second! Youth is the most precious period of life. Never forget that science and knowledge are treasures that never burn, never sink, and no one can take away from you!" These words of our President will motivate every young person. The following words of UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres about defining responsibility and commitment to youth was also mentioned in the book. "Peace, active economic development, social justice, tolerance - all of these and many others are related to the use of youth opportunities."

The 4 most important links of the future renaissance, Academician Akil Salimov's flowing river, talents are the power of the state, the glory of the nation, Minister of Higher and Secondary Specialized Education Abdukodir Tashkulov's speech about the most important direction of improving the quality of education, scientific and pedagogical activities, Professor Mansur Bekmurodov and the late teacher, former and loyal rector of our institute Uktam Umurzakov's views that are mentioned in the book have a special value. The event was impressive and full of questions and answers.
