

First-year-students' conversation with a teacher-educator

Chairwomen of the Women's Advisory Board of OMWR and AM faculties, Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers and the teacher-educator of the Student Dormitory No.3 visited the dormitory to get acquainted with the organizational works on meaningful leisure time for young people.

The students exchanged views on the topic of "Cleanliness" and the meaningful use of their free time. The roundtable discussion focused on a number of issues related to the upbringing of girls. In particular, they stressed the need to protect the rights and interests of our girls, to reveal their talents and abilities, to strengthen the process of educating real leaders among them, and to explain to our girls the necessity of strictly following the rules of student housing.

Press service of TIAME