

Visit to the Alley of Litterateurs on 80th anniversary of Abdulla Aripov

On the occasion of the 80th anniversary of Abdulla Aripov, 2-year students of the group 5 of the Faculty of Hydrotechnical construction under the guidance of the curator of the group, senior teacher of the Department of Theoretical and Structural Mechanics E. Toshmatov, visited the Alley of Litterateurs. During the visit, the students got acquainted with the life and work of Abdulla Aripov. Abdulla Aripov was born in 1941 in the village of Nekuz, Kasan district, Kashkadarya region. His father, Orifboy Ubaidulla ugli, was the chairman of a local collective farm. The family had eight children - four boys and four girls, Abdulla Aripov was the youngest of the sons. After graduating from high school in 1958 with a gold medal, Abdulla Aripov continued his education at the journalism department of the Uzbek Philology Faculty of Tashkent State University.

Abdulla Aripov wrote his first poem "Bird" while studying at the university. "Spring", "My first love", "Autumn", "Saratan", "Uzbekistan", "Listening to Munojat (" Munojat "ni tinglab ...)", "Othello", "Sarob", "Dengizga" , "Malomat toshlari", "Goldfish", "Face to face", "Genetics" and other poems by A. Aripov are vivid examples of Uzbek literature of the second half of the twentieth century. In 2000-2001, a four-volume collection of "Selected Works" by Abdulla Aripov was published. Abdulla Aripov is the author of the State Anthem of the Republic of Uzbekistan, adopted on December 10, 1992 at the eleventh session of the Supreme Council of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

Press service of TIAME.