

Remembering a great poet

People's poet of Uzbekistan, Hero of Uzbekistan Abdulla Aripov is one of the great representatives of Uzbek literature of the twentieth century. In particular, it is impossible to imagine our poetry of the second half of the century without his amazing and unique works.

In order to provide the students of the education direction 5313200 - "Technical expertise and marketing of machinery and technologies" with training in the 5+1 system, as well as to provide meaningful leisure time, once again a visit to the youth park named after the great poet, hero of Uzbekistan A. Aripov was organized. Aripov. During the visit, students gave examples from the poet's work.

the press service of TIAME