

Non-traditional lesson

On May 15, 2019, classes on the theme "Fundamentals of energy saving" on groups 305 - 306 in the direction of "Automation and management of technological processes and production" of faculty of "Energy supply of Agriculture and Water Resources " at the enterprise "Hydroponics Center" from 10:00 to 11:20, students were introduced to modern energy-efficient technologies and principles of their production in agricultural production.

An autonomous power plant on "Basics of Energy Efficiency" was introduced to energy-saving electric equipment on modern energy-saving technologies and concepts were given.

Lessons were conducted by the assistants of the department "ET and UED" and O. Matchonov.

R.Jumaniyozov, the press secretary of the institute