

The flag of Uzbekistan is the light of our nation

November 18 - The Day of the National Flag of the Republic of Uzbekistan. The law "On the National Flag of the Republic of Uzbekistan" was adopted on November 18, 1991, at the 8th session of the Supreme Council of the Republic of Uzbekistan. The national flag and its symbol represent a historic connection to the ancient states on the borders of today's Uzbekistan and embody the national and cultural traditions of the republic. The color blue on the flag is a symbol of the eternal sky and the water of life that reflects the essence of life. In the symbolic language, it means goodness, wisdom, honesty, glory and devotion. Consequently, the color of the Amir Temur flag was blue. The white color on the flag is a symbol of holy peace that coincides with the daylight and the cosmic lights. White is a symbol of purity, purity, purity, the purity of dreams and dreams, and the pursuit of inner beauty. Green is a symbol of nature's renewal. It is a symbol of youth, hope and joy in many nations. The red lines represent the streams of life force flowing through our bodies. The image of the young crescent connected with our historical traditions. It is also a symbol of our independence. The stars are a spiritual, divine symbol for all.

The image of the 12 stars on the National Flag of the Republic of Uzbekistan also directly related to our historical traditions and ancient chronicles. Our attention to the twelve stars is also due to the development of offensive science in the scientific thinking of the ancient states on the border of Uzbekistan. The image of the 12 stars on our national flag understanding as a symbol of the ancient culture of the Uzbek people, its aspiration to perfection and happiness on its soil. Students of "Hydro technique repairing", "Agriculture and water reclamation" took an active part.

Information by Dilorom Sagdullaeva, educator, teacher and psychologist

Head of the Press Service of the Institute Rahimboy Djumaniyazov