

"Circle of creative girls"

On December 18, 2020 was held an event on the theme "Circle of creative girls" at the initiative of the educator A.Khayitova. The event was attended by Z.Ismailova, the chairman of the "Advisory Council on Women's Affairs", members of the council Z.Hafizova, N.Khalikova, O.Rozikulova, H.Eshova, Deputy Dean for Youth Affairs of the Faculty of Land Management, teachers of "Pedagogy, Psychology and methods of teaching: D.Mustafoeva, D.Mukimova, I.Bukhorov, director of SD and psychologists of the institute M.Muhamedova and A.Azimov and students as well. The girls, dressed in beautiful national costumes with well-groomed hair, demonstrated their talents to the audience in order to show their ability in the five most important initiatives - agility, cooking, ingenuity and knowledge.

At the final stage of the event Professor Z. Ismailova, chairwoman of the Women's Advisory Board noted: "We, educated people, must take full responsibility for the full implementation of the five initiatives put forward by the head of country". We have a lot of work to do in this regard. Nowadays, every conscious person must act on the dictates of his heart. The words by head of our country: "The light of literacy begins from the university" should be motto to us. We believe that these girls will be not only good mothers in the family, but also valuable worker in our society.
