

My grandmother's dresses

✘ On January 17th at the Institute was held a spiritual and educational event "My grandmother's dresses" with the purpose of propagation of our national costumes among students. Clothing is an ability to reflect one's physical, spiritual, and mental qualities. Each person shows off who he is and what he looks like through the clothes he wears.

Students of MoHW and HC faculty of the Institute and M.Abdurahmanova, specialist of makhalla citizens' assembly named after H.Olimjon and Z.Rasuliy participated in the event. Today, attention is paid to the culture of dress in our country. Nowadays, we see a lot of "tear-down" clothes in European countries as a result of the popular culture. Frankly, it is not surprise.

Speaking at the conference, Z.Rasuli said that the main purpose of the contest was to raise the youth's interest in our historical values and to develop it in the future. Undoubtedly, this will improve the attitude of our youth to the culture of dress, and will continue to protect our national values.
