pupils visited TIIAME

Within the framework of cooperation between the department "Mechanization of Agriculture" and secondary school № 64 under the department of public education Urtachirchik district of Tashkent region on March 19 after the January and March visits, the faculty of the institute visited our institute. During the visit, students learned about the existing departments at the Institute and their activities, the directions of undergraduate education.

Readers received detailed answers to all their questions. The readers came back with a lot of impressions. the press service of TIIAME