

News and goodness

There is little time for the New Year to come once a year. To celebrate this holiday in the Karshi branch of TIAME on December 18, the department on Youth affairs, spirituality and enlightenment, trade union committee and a group of talented students organized a festive program called "New Year's party." The event was attended by deputy director for Educational and Educational Affairs Sh. Ubaydullaev and deputy director for Research and Innovation H.Kh. Ravshanov warmly congratulated the students on the coming New Year. The event was followed by an interesting question - answers, various performances and staged performances. The newly formed team of Talented Students 'Resource Center' gave a great cheer to all the students. Happy New Year to all of you!
