

The essence of problematic lectures

On May 15-16, 2019, Karshi Engineering-Economics Institute hosted the Republican Scientific and Technical Conference "Creation of Resource-saving Innovative Technologies and Technological Tools in Agriculture and Perspectives of Their Effective Use".

Professor Shukurullo Ubaydullayevich Yuldashev, academician of the Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Honored Worker of Science of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Doctor of Technical Sciences, Doctor of Technical Sciences, Professor of the Department of Mechanization of Hydrometeorological Service of the Tashkent Medical Institute, participated in the opening ceremony. and at the opening of the conference there was a problematic report on the theme: "The full utilization of the machine, mechanism, aggregate resources and the material and technical base of agrarian system: problems and solutions". The problematic report of academician Sh.U.Yuldashev made a great interest to the participants of the conference, students, masters, researchers, researchers and researchers.

Academic Sh.U. Yuldashev gave a comprehensive interview to the Kashkadarya regional television on the topic of development of the agrarian sector of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

The press secretary of the Institute, Rakhimboy Jumaniyozov