

Shifting from theory to practice

It is important to inform that providing the full compliance of a new vocational education with international standards, personal and professional competencies in training of qualified personnel on the basis of a social order along with existing educational approaches in the educational process with international standards. The personal and professional competencies in ensuring compatibility and training qualified personnel on the basis of a social order, as well as changing existing educational approaches in the educational process, developing creative thinking skills, self study skills to solve the problems of logical thinking and professionalism of research are important. The doctorate student of the 2nd course A. Dzhumanov from the Department of "Professional education and physical culture" worked on research on the topic "The improvement of professional competencies of students on the basis of a the interdisciplinary integrative approach" professors of the Jizzakh Polytechnic Institute.

The doctorate student of the 2nd course of "Vocational Education and Physical Education" department -Tuychieva H. prepared for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Pedagogical Sciences, specializing in Theory and Methods of Professional Education,13.00.05 . The research work on the topic "Developing the system of pedagogical adaptation of future engineers of technical universities (on the example of technical universities)" has been carried out as an experimental work with students and teachers of the Jizzakh Polytechnic Institute.

Press Service of TIAME