In this event was attended dean of the faculty Sh. Narbayev, deputy dean for youth affairs Kh. Eshova, poet member of the Writers union Doniyor Mirzo, teacher of the department of languages A. Turdiyeva, The event was attended by dean of the faculty Sh.Narbayev, deputy dean for youth affairs H.Eshova, poet member of the Writers Union Doner Mirzo, teacher of the Department of Languages A.Turdieva, faculty and 1st year students.

The national policy of Uzbekistan is aimed at strengthening the unity of the peoples of the republic, a society in which representatives of any ethnic group have equal legal status. Over the 30-year period of the Law on the State Language, the Uzbek language, along with native languages for representatives of many nations and nationalities living in our country, has become the core connecting and unifying a multilingual society, the historical fate of peoples, which have been intertwined for many centuries. The Uzbek language as an official language is an important factor in ensuring interethnic harmony and solidarity. Active and talented students of the faculty made their numbers: read poetry, sang songs, danced. It was fun, interesting and exciting.
