

"My young years"

On November 15, 2019, a spiritual and educational event on the theme "My Young Years" held in the building of Building B in 208 classrooms of the faculty of Agricultural Mechanization with the participation of 35 students. The event attended by a member of the Union of Writers of Uzbekistan poet M. Ulugova, professor of the department of Agricultural Mechanization M. Shoumarova, acting associate professor of the department of Tractors and Cars N. Kholikova and a teacher of the department of Languages A. Turdieva. At this event, they noted that the main goal of parents and faculty is to educate young people in the spirit of respect for elders, respect for the memory of ancestors, and the formation of a harmoniously developed and mature personality. Thus, the manifestation by a person of culture, intelligence, good behavior, personal qualities in an educational institution are a reflection of parenting in the family. Indeed, the educational system contributes to the improvement of these qualities.

The poet M. Ulugova in her speech noted the need to read books, acquire knowledge, and skills from invaluable written sources of the spirituality of our people. Books are an undeniable source of knowledge. A person who reads books is improving, develops his horizons, logic, and thinking, improves his memory.

The head of the press service of the institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov.