The difficult ideological situation in the modern world requires that our youth more actively develop their ideological immunity. The task of today is the formation of youth's confidence in their future, the formation of independent and creative thinking, increasing the sense of responsibility for the fate of the country. Based on the disclosure of the humane essence of the idea of national independence, introducing into the minds and hearts of students the idea that independence is the highest value for us, and to protect it is the sacred duty of each of us.
