

Great work must be every day!

Students of TIAME visited the specialised school for the disabled in Syrdarya. In December of this year, they announced all the students of our institute the charitable action. Students voluntarily took part in this charity event. Not only students, professors, teachers, heads of departments, heads of departments, faculties, pro-rectors and teachers, but also the rector of the Institute took an active part in this project. It carried all the organisational work out by the faculty leaders of the Union of Youth in cooperation with the Trade Union Committee of the Institute. Yesterday, it completed the first phase of our good work.

1. Hydrotechnical faculty youth leaders and students
2. Leaders and students of the Faculty of Land Management
3. The leaders and students of the Faculty of Agricultural mechanization
4. Students from active groups who have served in the military
5. Institute of Trade Union Committee
6. The Talented Youth Workshop team came together to congratulate our needy young people on the New Year at the specialised school # 71 in Bakht, Syrdarya region.

Is it because we have travelled so far that so many people in Tashkent are coming to do such good things? The students provided with the pre-school facilities in which over 245 students provided with 2 electric heaters. A festive program prepared, and fairy tales, snowman and dancers. The Institute's trade union committee prepared event and repaired the table for the children. The students gave special and useful gifts on behalf of all students of the institute who took part in the charity action. The rest is hard to describe, and we think its happiness is for you. Thanks to everyone who took part in this charity event, the students of this specialised school will visit Angren in Tashkent region tomorrow.
