

Open dialogue with students

On January 20, 2021 in Karshi branch of Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers in collaboration with the Regional Council of the People's Democratic Party of Uzbekistan was held an open dialogue with students on "Current challenges facing young people based on the Address of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan and the Youth Forum". O.Ravshanov, member of the regional council of the People's Democratic Party of Uzbekistan, S.Kamilova, member of the group of the People's Democratic Party of Uzbekistan in the regional council, R.Murtazaev, deputy of Karshi city council and Sh.Khudoykulova, head of the regional council of the People's Democratic Party spoke about the great changes in the country. Based on the address and speeches at the Youth Forum, the deputies expressed their views on the challenges facing young people, news about the life of the region and the city, the education of young people, their participation in political processes.

Press Service of TIAME