

USAGE OF WORLD LANGUAGES

The majority of developed countries are characterized by their profound knowledge of the world languages. So, the need for language learning needs to be high.

Today's rapidly developing globalization, rapid information age, we see increasing demand for English language in our country, especially among young people, especially in the world language. Teachers of the department of "English language" of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers are actively working on this subject, who are deeply aware of the importance of English language specialists for the development of our country.

Members of this department are led by F.B.Rahmatullayevich, head of the department and with the assistance of English teacher F.Buradimova, attracting a number of foreign experts to encourage young people of the institute, to enrich their language learning process and to organize them more meaningfully. The seminar, which was recently held with the participation of Mrs. Cleia Peterson, from the United States, was a very significant and exciting event for our students.

During the talk, the young people were able to answer many questions, and the process encouraged them to learn the English language perfectly.
