

Scientific and practical conference

On October 14, 2020, together with the Uzbek National Institute of Metrology under the "Uzstandard" Agency and the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers was held a meeting with the participation of vice-rectors and teaching staff, in order to train qualified personnel in the field of standardization, metrology and conformity assessment for industrial enterprises, as well as to develop science and education in this area. on May 20, 2021 was organized Republican Scientific and Practical Conference, under the motto "Metrology-202. Measurements for Health", as a practical continuation of this work.

Professor Plakhtiev A.M., associate professors Baratov R.Zh., Denmukhammadiev A.M. successfully delivered a report on the topic "Mutually beneficial integration between TIIAME and "Uzstandard" agency (on the example of the Department of Electrical Engineering and Mechatronics)".

Press service of TIIAME