

International cooperation will be developed with UCSI University of Malaysia

In order to expand the geography of international cooperation of the institute, negotiations were held with the University of Malaysia UCSI. Elbek from the Embassy of Uzbekistan in Malaysia, Nur Zahdi Bin Mohd Nor Aldin, Head of the International Rating and Internal Audit Department of UCSI University, Chan Joe Jim, Head of the International Cooperation Department, Roland Chan, Kamilla Rashidova of the International Cooperation Department and Vice-Rector for International Cooperation A. Salokhiddinov, head of the international cooperation department Sh. Rakhmonov, head of the international cooperation department of the Bukhara branch M. Lee and Sabirova K. attended at the meeting.

Embassy staff member, Elbek opened the meeting by introducing the participants. UCSI University started with a presentation. The presentation was about the foundation of the university in 1986, its campuses in different cities, its achievements, as well as the teaching staff and students. Then there was a detailed video about our institute. Issues of water resources management, ecology and management for the mutual benefit of both parties were discussed at the meeting. As a result of the meeting, there was reached an agreement on signing a memorandum of understanding.

As a reference: UCSI University is ranked 391st in the QS rankings. UCSI University is a universal university in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. UCSI offers a variety of specialties at the undergraduate, graduate and doctoral levels, including medicine, pharmaceuticals, engineering, IT, applied sciences, business, architecture, music, social sciences, arts and hospitality.

Press Service of TIAME