

Theater - a place to cultural rest

As you know, the Head of state put forward five important initiatives on social, spiritual and educational work. The first initiative aimed at increasing youth interest in music, painting, literature, theater and other forms of art, as well as developing their talents. Each art has a positive impact on the psyche, the soul of a person, shaping his aesthetic taste, enriching his spiritual world and changing his worldview. Despite the various forms of art, many artists have recognized that they are theatrical. In this sense, the stage of the theater fills a person's heart with great joy, certain feelings, and sensations.

The play "Oromgoh" (tr. "Resting place") held at the Uzbek National Academic Drama Theater. Students and the curator of the 102nd group of the faculty of mechanization of irrigation and drainage works took part in it. The play "Oromgoh"(tr. "Resting place") based on the fact that the authorities do not respond positively to complaints from people who suffer from injustice and corruption, which have become their daily life. At the same time, it should be note that the problem of such injustice, which is a victim of not only people, but also of nature and the environment, illustrated by the heroism of the young journalist.
