

Awareness is a requirement for cooperation

The Karshi branch of our institute was recently established, it is not a secret that the educational and pedagogical process has achieved positive results in the field of spiritual and educational activities. A person is glad to see his child's height and achievements. She gets to know him, gives advice and shares his experiences. It is quite natural that our institute visits its branch and its "child". It is encouraging that getting acquainted with the leadership and the educational process has become a tradition of our institute. Vice-rector for academic affairs Ubaydullaev Shavkat Rashidovich, vice-rector for youth affairs of the institute Ruzimurot Choriev with teachers and staff held a conversation about this actual theme and discussed possible solution.
