

Women's committee meeting

On September 22, 2020, the first meeting of the women's committee for the 2020-2021 academic year was held at the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers. The meeting was attended by the chairman of the women's committee, members of the women's committee: an employee of the department for youth, spirituality and education, chairman of the trade union committee, chairmen of the women's committee of faculties. The agenda includes the development and approval of a work plan for the women's committee, the election of a candidate for the post of chairman of the committee on women's affairs, planning organizational work to introduce new approaches to women's problems in the new academic year.

With a view to public control over the implementation of the legislation on benefits for women in need, including women with disabilities, in order to increase the efficiency of the tasks assigned to the committee, the institute holds various competitions among women, sports competitions, acquaintance with the housing and social conditions of women, organizes seminars, round tables, and other events, if necessary, officials of state bodies, public organizations, and public figures are invited.

Press service of TIAME