

Throughout the museums

On November 21, 2020, according to the schedule of visits approved by the rector of the Institute for the organization of meaningful leisure time, first-year students of the Faculty of "Organization and Management of Water Resources" together with group coaches travelled to museums and attractions in Tashkent. During the trip, our students had great impressions. Such trips are constantly organized.

Press service of TIAME