

The first moments of studentship

Spending every moment meaningfully enriches the world of human imagination and imagination. On Saturday, November 21, 2020, the first-year students of the group 108 of the Faculty of Land Management under the leadership of their group coach Y.A.Usmonov visited the sights of the capital. In particular, the students visited the Independence Square and the Museum of Olympic Glory. It is impossible not to notice that in the first days of student life the love for the motherland has grown again. After the event, the students expressed their gratitude to the leadership of our institute.
