

World Water Day at schools

Spiritual and educational activities aimed at the further improvement of the socio-cultural environment in Tashkent and Tashkent region are being carried out, including systematic work aimed at raising and encouraging students' knowledge among secondary school students by the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers was held at school № 314 of Shayhantahur district of Tashkent city. This event was organized as a roundtable.

During the roundtable, the school's principal, Khodzinazarov A.K, the doctor of basic doctrine of TIAME, N. Shaymanov and the teacher of the Department of Ecology and Management of Water Resources, J.Mirzagobulov met with the schoolchildren and held a roundtable on the history of the institute, the conditions created for study at the institute and the role of the institute at the national and international levels.

During the roundtable, it was agreed to hold systematic events among schoolchildren in connection with the "March 22 - World Water Day".

Report by J.Mirzakobulov, a trainee teacher of the Department of EMWR

R.Jumaniyozov, the press secretary of the institute