

On the eve of the holiday of endurance and solidarity

Eid al-Fitr, which has been associated with goodness and blessings for centuries, is celebrated as a religious holiday of Muslims around the world. It is a holiday that has not lost its essence in any situation. The symbolic meaning of this holiday is that it tests the will and faith of the people, shows self-restraint, gratitude and contentment in everyone, and is also valued as a symbol of mutual help, generosity and kindness. . Although this holiday was not celebrated in public, this year as a holiday due to the pandemic, the people of our republic stayed in their homes and felt the holiday spirit and splendor.

In his congratulatory message on the occasion of Eid al-Fitr, President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev said that this month such noble qualities as patience, contentment, spiritual purification, compassion and care for the needy, doing good deeds have become more evident in our country than ever before. In this regard, the staff of our institute, through the ZOOM program, congratulated all the teachers and the people of the institute, who did not lose interest in education, on the eve of Eid, organized a congratulatory event.

Active professors and teachers of our institute shared their impressions and congratulations. In particular, R.Choriyev, Z. Ismoilova, R. Hakimov, Sh. Uljayeva, B. Norov, R. Jumaniyazov and others warmly congratulated the people of the institute on the holiday of Eid. They recognized that the unity of the team, a talented pedagogical team, unity and common goals will always be a guarantee of victory.

They noted that TIIAME's high performance and results among the world-class educational institutions are the key to this unity and solidarity. On the same day, a group of our teachers visited the Alley of Writers and gave an interview to Uzbekistan 24 TV channel while visiting the statues of thinkers who have become the pride of our nation. During the conversations of O. Arifjanov, R. Hakimov and A. Berdimurodov, examples and comments were given, which testify to the achievements of the staff of our institute.

B. Mukimov Assistant of the Department of Humanities

TIIAME press service