

Visit to museum

Commemorating ancestors who died for the freedom of the people is a noble deed. Students of the Faculty of Agricultural Mechanization visited the Museum of Repression Victims in the center of the Martyrs' Memorial Square on December 24.

Teachers and museum staff provided students with information about the lives and work of victims of repression during the visit. Students exchanged views on issues of interest and had an open dialogue, from which students received relevant information.

Press service of TIIAME