

Honoured customs

Activists of the Institute actively participated in the Tashkent City Hall competition "Values, customs, traditions and youth". For the meaningful leisure of students, Tashkent city districts have been organizing Navruz celebrations, such as youth marathon, soup championship, national games, discussions with guests from regions, national dances, and acquaintance with the products of leading manufacturers. they had the impressions. Most importantly, friendship, solidarity among young people, commitment to Uzbek values, love for the Motherland have led to a renewal of emotions. Action is the requirement for activation period. Akmal Berdimurodov, a youth leader of the Institute.

The press secretary of the Institute, Rakhimboy Jumaniyazov