

Well-educated student is tested at a science olympiad

April 16-17, 2021 at the Department of "Accounting and Auditing" in B-208 study room the 1st stage of the Republican Olympiad on "Finance and Credit" and in the study room B-225 the 1st stage of the subject "Accounting and Auditing" was held in a written, test, and orally. In addition, under the leadership of a senior teacher of the department M. Rakhmataliev was held an online Olympiad on the subject "Statistics" on the website of the institute through the moodle system. M. Abdullaeva and J. Muydinov, winner students of 206 groups were awarded with fiction books and honorary diplomas. According to the decision of the jury, the students with the highest scores were recommended for the 2nd stage.

Press service of TIAME