

We are together with President

It is difficult to imagine the future of any country without its youth. Because it embodies power, innovation, initiation and organization. The effect of early training on young people is similar. Therefore, the older generation will have wings when young people reach the top of their knowledge. That is why since the first days of independence, state youth policy has been a priority.

What the President expects from his young people, our motherland, our great motherland, has come true in his address to the Senate and Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis on December 27 last year. Referring to the problems of young people and the challenges they face, they are confident that "we still have a lot to do and young people will be the backbone of the country."

Today, Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers and the Ministry of Defense of the Republic of Uzbekistan held a joint event entitled "We, the youth - are indebted to the President!" An educational meeting called "a bold step in the light of the above considerations is not an exaggeration." The event attended by prominent guests, officers, a military orchestra and professors, students, and undergraduates. After the opening ceremony of the National Anthem of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the event opened by the Rector of the Institute Uktam Pardayevich Umurzakov. State and public figure, academician Akil Umurzakov Salimov, academician of the Academy of Sciences of Uzbekistan Saudulla Iskandarovich Iskandarov, First Minister of Defence of Uzbekistan, Colonel-General Rustam Akhmedov, and Hero of Uzbekistan Ravshan Davlatovich shared their life and scientific experience.

The song sung by Lieutenant-Colonel Marat Khakimov, soloist of the Ministry of Defense of the Republic of Uzbekistan. At the end of the event, the singer of the Central song and Dance Ensemble of the Armed Forces Botir Hadzhiev sang the song "National Army." Then the rector of the Institute warmly congratulated the guests of the event with flowers.
