

Visit to Sacred place

Thanks to independence, our great men, our ancestors and our scholars have been transformed into sacred places of worship and places of eternal happiness. Human beings, nations are alive with a sense of historical memory. The visit is a source of refreshment to the heart.

In this regard, on the 26th of April the students of group 203 of specialty of "Water management and melioration" of faculty of "Hydromelioration" visited Zangiota together with the group supervisor, an assistant of the department of "Irrigation and melioration" D.G.Yulchiyev.

As a result of the visit, the students received detailed information about the moral character, the judge and the physician, the Sufi and the saint Zangiota.

R.Jumaniyozov, the press secretary of the institute