

"AMTPP" Department of TIAME and JSC "Uzsuvtaminot" in cooperation with "TECHNOLINK" discussed the issue of launching a project of installation of SCADA systems at pumping stations.

On November 25, Saifnazarov Sakhil Ismailovich, the head of JSC "Uzsuvtaminot" and the head of the department of technological and production processes Ruziyev Mansur Bakhtiyorovich and the staff of the department of "Automation and management of technological processes and production" in cooperation with Vokhitov Zagir Refkatovich, the head of TECHNOLINK; Novak Vladimir Leonidovich, executive director; Gennady Hvishuk, a leading specialist at the center in Spain; Sergei Polupanov and Dmitry Lezhnin, a leading specialist at the St. Petersburg Center had a discussion.

http://tiame.uz//storage/web/source/1/J8EKe74UBlpazrM8Ja-DBD\_JqoquYfyj.png The main topic of the conversation was the discussion of the project on automation of existing pumping stations in the Republic of Uzbekistan, the establishment of a centralized dispatch center (SCADA). The project is planned to be implemented in collaboration with the staff of the Department of "Automation and management of technological processes and production" TIAME and specialists of TECHNOLINK. In addition, at the suggestion of the Department of "Automation and management of technological processes and production" TIAME, the issue of organizing retraining courses at the facilities where the project is planned was considered, as well.