

Career guidance work

On 27 May 2021, Associate Professor of the Department of Ecology and Water Resources Management M.Abdukadirova conducted career guidance work with graduates of secondary school №152 of Yashnabad district. She provided the graduates with information about the structure of the Institute, told about faculties and directions of education. The meeting with graduates was held in a dialogue format.

The press-service of TIAME.