

Partnership with a leading private university in Malaysia.

An online meeting was organized with the purpose of establishing cooperation with INTI International University & Colleges Malaysia. The head of the international relations department Irina Kim, specialist of the department Malcolm Ng, represented Malaysia, by TIIAME - the head of the international cooperation department Sh. Rakhmonov, the head of the international department of the Bukhara branch A. Sobirov, associate professor of the department of hydraulic structures N. Ikramov attended at the event.

Both sides presented their educational institution orientation program. Afterwards, joint projects were agreed. In particular, the Malaysian partners agreed to organize free online English courses for TIIAME employees, create joint undergraduate programs, and organize short-term internships at INTI University. For information: INTI University & Colleges is a private university located in Malaysia.

Press service of TIIAME